

Trans-Lux

March 2001

Volume 19 No. 1

Reception Room in the New York Office of the Universal Atlas Cement Company

The wall panels and fluted pilasters in the reception room are Architectural Concrete Slabs from the Studio of John Joseph Earley. Overall design of the reception room is by Walter Dorwin Teague.

In This Issue:

News and Notes	1	John Joseph Earley	17
Preservation Update	3	World Congress	24
Nathan C. Wyeth	5	The Vitaphone Project	23
Get Into Expo Free	11	Music Review	25
1932 Taxes	12	Deco Bookshelf	25
Industrial Designers	13	Calendar	Back cover

Support ADSW's Corporate Sponsors

Carlisle Suites Hotel
Washington D.C.

The Dance Factory
Arlington, VA
www.thedancefactory.com

Northern Virginia Homes
Fairfax, VA
www.northernvahomes.com

Trans-Lux is published four times a year by the Art Deco Society of Washington, P.O. 11090, Washington, D.C. 20008. Phone (202) 298-1100. ADSW is a non-profit organization incorporated to foster public awareness and appreciation of the Art Deco period through volunteer actions to preserve the era's decorative, industrial, architectural, and cultural arts. Visit our website at www.adsw.org

Editor: Jim Linz

Copyright 2001 ADSW

President—Terry Turnipseed
Vice President—Dianne Faup
Treasurer—Joel Shprentz
Silver Spring—Richard Striner
Education—Linda Lyons
Membership—Linda Ingram
Publicity—VACANT
Deputy Publicity—VACANT
Design—VACANT
Expo—Don Selkirk
Deputy Expo—Travis Smith
Programs—John Freedman
Streamlines—Janet West
Preservation—Wayne Goldstein
Deputy Preservation—Tony Wilner
Publications—Jim Linz
Acting Secretary—Linda Lyons
Legal—Barbara Fakoury
Fundraising—VACANT

ttumipseed@adsw.org
dfaup@adsw.org
jshprentz@adsw.org
rstriner@adsw.org
llyons@adsw.org
lingram@adsw.org
publicity@adsw.org
publicity@adsw.org
design@adsw.org
dselkirk@adsw.org
tsmith@adsw.org
jfreedman@adsw.org
jwest@adsw.org
Wgoldstein@adsw.org
twilner@adsw.org
jlinz@adsw.org
secretary@adsw.org
bfakoury@adsw.org

A Proud Member of the International Coalition of Art Deco Societies

Wanna Be a Member?

Name(s): _____

Address: _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone: () _____ (home) () _____ (work)

Email: _____

$30 Single $40 Couple

$_____ Additional tax deductible contribution

Visa Master Card American Express

Credit Card # _____

Expiration Date _____

Name on Card _____

Cardholder's Signature _____

Make checks payable to Art Deco Society of Washington

Detach and mail to:

ADSW, PO Box 11090, Washington, DC 20008

Apply online at www.adsw.org

Change of Address Request

Name(s) _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone (____) _____ (home) (____) _____ (work)

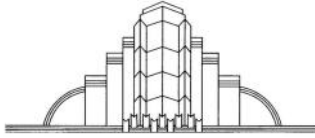

E-mail _____

Detach and mail to

ADSW, PO Box 11090, Washington DC 20008

Or

Submit your change of address online at www.adsw.org

Coming Attractions

ADSW Events

March 31—Symposium on John Joseph Earley (Univ. of Maryland)

April 1—Bus tour of John Joseph Earley Sites

May 3—Show and Tell (tentative—location to be determined)

May 22—Alex Padro Presentation on Washington DC's Monuments and Memorials, Corcoran Gallery of Art

June 10—Exposition of the Decorative Arts, Ernst Community Cultural Center, Annandale, VA

July ??—ADSW picnic?

Other Events

April 5-8—Antiques Spectacular, Metrolina Fairgrounds, Charlotte, NC

April 22—Columbia, Maryland flea market opens (every Sunday)

April 26-28—Shupp's Grove Flea Market, Adamstown, PA

April 27-29—Renninger's Flea Market, Kutztown, PA

May 8-13—Brimfield, Massachusetts Flea Markets

May 19—Antique Automobile Club of America Meet, Winchester, Virginia

Now Showing

B'nai B'rith Klutznick Museum—"Members of the Club—Jewish Teen Life in Washington, 1920s-1960s," through April 2001. (1640 Rhode Island Avenue)

National Archives—"Picturing the Century: One Hundred Years of Photography from the National Archives," through July 4, 2001. (Archives Metro, 7th & Pennsylvania NW)

National Building Museum—"William Price: From Arts and Crafts to Modern Design," through April 29, 2001

National Building Museum—"On the Job—Design and the American Office," through April 29, 2001